

With For About 2020 Episode Two Easy Read Guide

Thank you for booking your place at With For About 2020, we're excited for you to join us online for our conference.

Episode Two happens on Wednesday 3rd June at 2:30pm UK time (GMT+1). It happens online at the website withforabout.com

Before the conference:

Be aware that by attending the conference you agree to our Safer Spaces Policy – this is a document which describes how we should behave so that we can all feel safe and welcome at the conference.

You can read this here: withforabout.com/safer-spaces-boundaries

Be aware that the conference is suitable for those over the age of 16. The conference presentations may include swearing and content which is not suitable for younger audiences.

Be aware that this episode of With For About 2020 has discussions and presentations that include experiences of racism, white supremacy, police violence, issues of COVID-19 and of death.

How to watch and join in:

Each episode will be streamed live on this website:

www.withforabout.com

With For About 2020

A slow conference for a fast evolving crisis

Get Tickets

£0 to £50

Every Wednesday 27 Nov
2.30 pm (UK Time/BST)
Watch and chat live or

If you would like to take part in the live chat while watching, you will need to be logged into your YouTube account and channel.

You can also share your thoughts via social media using #withforabout2020

The episodes will have both pre-recorded and live content:

The pre-recorded content will be subtitled during the live stream.

The live content will not be subtitled during the live stream.

If you would like to watch the whole episode with subtitles you can do this at:

www.withforabout.com/previous

The full subtitled episode will be available to watch there from Friday.

Episode One is there now ready to watch whenever you like.

What to expect in this week's episode:

An introduction from Heart of Glass and With For About 2020 curators Cecilia Wee and James Leadbitter.

A presentation by artist, activist and academic Lois Weaver. Lois will be talking through her ABCs of Change, these are some of the words that she is thinking about at the moment.

Artist Jamal Gerald will be sharing a collection of his writings with us this week. Jamal's work is a celebration of individuality, it focuses on identity and lived experiences.

We will be joined again by artist and writer Selina Thompson and her tabby cat Bella for some updates and more thoughts from lockdown life.

AM Kanngieser is a disabled writer, researcher and artist. They will be talking about all of the 'nature is healing' memes that have been appearing on social media over the past few months.

Dr Hanna Kienzler, Prof. Rita Giacaman and Dr. Weeam Hammoudeh will be sharing their conversation about the impacts of COVID-19 upon women in their local communities.

Black Power Naps is project which includes sculptures, sounds and magazines. It reclaims laziness and idleness as power. Fannie Sosa and Navild Acosta will be introducing us to the project and how we can find out more.

We hope you enjoy episode two! If you have any feedback or questions for us you can email us at: criticality@heartofglass.org.uk
